Strategy for Public Health in England

Background

Sefton Council and NHS Sefton have agreed to submit a joint strategic response to the Healthy Lives, Healthy People White paper. This White Paper outlines government's commitment to protecting the population from serious health threats; helping people live longer, healthier and more fulfilling lives; and improving the health of the poorest, fastest

This White Paper responds to Professor Sir Michael Marmot's Fair Society, Healthy Lives report and adopts its life course framework for tackling the wider determinants of health.

Summary

As part of the consultation and engagement process, briefing papers and presentations have been submitted to the Health and Social Care Cabinet meetings, to Overview and Scrutiny – Health and Social Care and to Overview and Scrutiny Management Board.

A draft joint strategic response that highlights key themes and provides responses to the consultation questions has now been produced.

A session was held on 14th March 2011 with elected members facilitated by the Overview and Scrutiny to provide an opportunity for wider discussion on the Public Health White Paper.

Following this session comments have been collated into this attached draft final response for submission to the Cabinet Member – Health and Social Care on the 16th March for agreement to be submitted into the National Consultation process
