1. Introduction/Background

1. The Employee Code of Conduct is contained within Part 5 of the Constitution. Section 10 of the Code of Conduct concerns Political Neutrality and specifically politically restricted posts.
2. The Local Government and Housing Act, 1989 imposed political restrictions on employees remunerated at or above Spinal Column Point SCP 44 or below this level if their posts are “politically sensitive”. The Local Democracy, Economic Development and Construction Act 2009 (effective from 12 January 2010) removed the concept of political restriction by salary level.
3. The reference to the SCP has been removed and has been replaced by the new information as follows:

“10.1 Some jobs within the Authority are politically restricted. This means that the employees in these posts are not allowed to take part in political activities, such as standing as a candidate for election to a public body, canvassing at elections or being a non-executive Director of a Health Trust, etc. The posts concerned are those of Chief Officers and Deputy Chief Officers and certain other politically sensitive posts. All the posts are listed in a central register maintained by the Legal Department.”
